The San Diego Inn of Court Trial Program

is for both new and experienced attorneys who want to learn and polish their trial skills. The Program takes place on 8 evenings over 4 consecutive weeks. It includes four lectures by prominent San Diego trial attorneys and members of the judiciary, and four "hands on" workshops facilitated by experienced workshop leaders and local judges. The format is a Thursday lecture followed by a workshop the next Tuesday, for 4 weeks.

Program objectives include conducting competent voir dire, opening statement, direct and cross-examination, laying an appropriate foundation, using exhibits, making objections, and closing argument. Enrollees receive fact patterns and program materials as well as additional instructional materials. Attendees will earn 22 MCLE Credits.

$450 per applicant (private practice attorneys) | $400 per applicant (public/non-profit sector attorneys)
